4. "The Convergence of Health and Law International Perspectives" 5th Annual Global Health Research Conference, (Centre for International Health, Faculty of Medicine, University of Toronto in collaboration with the Faculty of Law, University of Toronto). Some of the topics that will be discussed at this conference will be: fair distribution of medicines; corporate responsibility; vulnerable populations – unjust health disparities; determinants of health. 7 – 8 May, 2007.
5. "CIHR Workshop for Health Reporters", University of Toronto, Toronto, ON, 26-27 March 2007. (In collaboration with CIHR Marketing and Communications, Ottawa, ON). This workshop was an opportunity for health and science reporters to meet face to face with some of Canada's most renowned researchers (and up-and-coming stars) in the field of health-care services research. Researchers engaged with reporters to learn more about this complex field and benefit from direct interaction with these experts.
6. "Building a Health Human Resources Research and Knowledge Translation Exchange Agenda" workshop (in collaboration with Jamie Hockin, Public Health Agency Canada and Robert Shearer, Health Canada), Vancouver, BC, 13 February 2007. This workshop encouraged discussion among researchers, health research funding organizations, and health system policy and decision makers to help generate health system level HHR research and KTE priorities.
7. "CIHR Training Program in Health Law and Policy – 4th Network Curriculum Meeting" (in collaboration with Jocely Downie and Tim Caulfield), Montreal, Quebec, 16-17 November, 2006
8. "Social Insurance for Health Care: Economic, Legal and Political Considerations" conference, School of Public Policy & Governance, (with Mark Stabile and Carolyn Tuohy), University of Toronto, 9 - 10 November, 2006. This two-day conference brought together leaders in healthcare financing to discuss how to prevent healthcare from buckling under the strain of rising costs. It explored alternative ways of financing health care that are consistent with Canadian values but that go beyond the traditional publicly financed system. Discussion also included how to provide more equitable coverage for prescription drugs and how to increase the level of satisfaction with the tax-funded system.
9. "Administrative Law in Context" workshop, Faculty of Law, University of Toronto, (with Lorne Sossin), 15 September 2006.
10. "Access to Care, Access to Justice: The Legal Debate Over Private Health Insurance" With

Lorne Sossin and Kent Roach - organized the Chaoulli conference on 16 September, 2006. We had over 250 people in attendance. We co-edited the papers presented at the conference. The result is a book called Access to Care, Access to Justice: The Legal Debate Over Private Health Insurance in Canada – 27 separate chapters. This was published within a mere two weeks of the date of the conference by the University of Toronto Press in early October 2005 “Healing with Dollars and Sense: The Ethics of Cost-Effectiveness”, 9-10 December 2004. A Workshop funded the CHSRF Medicare Basket and Health Canada. This was done in conjunction with Gopal Sreenivsan, Department of Philosophy.

11. “Careful Consideration: Decision Making in Health Care.” This conference was held on Tuesday 30 November 2004 and funded by the CHSRF Medicare Basket project and Health Canada. The audience was a mix of academics, policy makers, and representatives from other organizations from within the health care community.

13. Organized National Health Law Conference entitled “Who Gets It? Who Decides? Issues of Access and Allocation in Health Care” which was held on January 22-24th, 2004 at the Sutton Place Hotel. This conference addressed issues of allocation and access in health care both in Canada and around the world. Speakers included the majority of health law scholars and teachers in Canada as well as invited guests from other jurisdictions. The conference was used as an opportunity to celebrate the work of Bernard Dickens who has now retired. Professor Larry Gostin (Georgetown University) gave a public lecture in honour of Bernard on the topic of the effect of SARS on public health planning. Michael Decter – recently appointed Chair of the National Health Council – also spoke at lunch on the second day of the conference.
14. Organized a roundtable on “Life after Kirby and Romanow: Will Real Change Happen?” at the Faculty of Law on 10 December 2002. The panellists were Carolyn Tuohy, Michael Decter, myself and Hugh Segal.
